

Breastfeeding Peer Counseling Program

Breastfeeding Peer Counselors provide frequent contacts to pregnant and breastfeeding women for breastfeeding promotion and support. They visit with moms by phone, or make home or office visits and will help assess breastfeeding concerns as well as provide support a mom may not otherwise have. Lactation consults with an International Board Certified Lactation Consultant (IBCLC) are also available.